

AO DRAFT COMMENT PROCEDURES

The Commission permits the submission of written public comments on draft advisory opinions when on the agenda for a Commission meeting.

DRAFT ADVISORY OPINION 2010-01 is available for public comments under this procedure. It was requested by Marc E. Elias, Esq., and Graham M. Wilson, Esq., on behalf of the Nevada State Democratic Party.

Draft Advisory Opinion 2010-01 is scheduled to be on the Commission's agenda for its public meeting of Thursday, February 25, 2010.

Please note the following requirements for submitting comments:

1) Comments must be submitted in writing to the Commission Secretary with a duplicate copy to the Office of General Counsel. Comments in legible and complete form may be submitted by fax machine to the Secretary at (202) 208-3333 and to OGC at (202) 219-3923.

2) The deadline for the submission of comments is 12:00pm noon (Eastern Time) on Wednesday, February 24, 2010.

3) No comments will be accepted or considered if received after the deadline. Late comments will be rejected and returned to the commenter. Requests to extend the comment period are discouraged and unwelcome. An extension request will be considered only if received before the comment deadline and then only on a case-by-case basis in special circumstances.

4) All timely received comments will be distributed to the Commission and the Office of General Counsel. They will also be made available to the public at the Commission's Public Records Office.

9 Dear Messrs. Elias and Wilson:

DRAFT

10 We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of the Nevada State

11 Democratic Party (the “State Party”) concerning the application of the Federal Election

12 Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”), and Commission regulations to

13 disbursements by the State Party for campaign materials to be used in connection with

14 volunteer activities on behalf of candidates for Federal office before the 2010 Nevada

15 primary election. The Commission concludes that such payments by the State Party

16 would be exempt from the definitions of “contribution” and “expenditure” if the Federal

17 candidates on whose behalf the volunteers distribute the campaign materials are the State

18 Party’s presumptive nominees, as described further below.

19 Background

20 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on

21 January 4, 2010, and on publicly available information regarding Nevada election law

22 and the State Party’s registration with the Commission.

23 The State Party is registered with the Commission as a political committee and as

24 a State committee of the Democratic party. Beginning “immediately,” the State Party

25 plans to purchase campaign materials, such as pins, bumper stickers, handbills,

26 brochures, posters, party newsletters, and yard signs, to be used in connection with

27 volunteer activities on behalf of Federal candidates seeking to become the State Party’s

1 nominee for the general election. Specifically, the State Party plans to have volunteers
2 distribute campaign materials on behalf of Federal candidates whom the State Party 3 believes will either run unopposed in the June 8, 2010 State primary election, or whom 4 the State Party believes are “assured of winning the nomination.”

5 The State Party will coordinate with its preferred candidates regarding the 6 proposed campaign materials, which may expressly advocate for the election of the 7 preferred candidates. The State Party plans to pay for all of the proposed campaign
8 materials with funds subject to the limitations and prohibitions of the Act.

9 In Nevada, candidates for partisan office of a major political party must be 10 nominated at the primary election.<sup>1</sup> The primary election must be held on the second 11 Tuesday of June in each even-numbered year; in 2010, the primary will be held on June 12 8.<sup>2</sup> Persons wishing to run in the primary election must file a declaration of candidacy or 13 acceptance of candidacy.<sup>3</sup> For Nevada’s 2010 primary election, this filing period begins
14 on March 1, 2010 and ends on March 12, 2010.<sup>4</sup>

15 Question Presented

16 Will the cost of the State Party’s proposed campaign materials be exempt from 17 the Act’s definitions of “contribution” and “expenditure,” if the materials are used in 18 connection with volunteer activities on behalf of the State Party’s preferred candidates
19 before the State primary election?

1 Legal Analysis and Conclusions

2 Yes, the costs of the State Party's proposed campaign materials will be exempt 3 from the definitions of "contribution" and "expenditure" if the Federal candidates on 4 whose behalf the volunteers distribute the materials are the State Party's presumptive 5 nominees, as described below.

6 The Act limits to $5,000 per election the amount that a multicandidate committee, 7 including a State party committee, may contribute to a Federal candidate. 2 U.S.C.
8 441a(a)(2)(A). In addition to this $5,000 per election limit, State party committees may 9 make coordinated expenditures that are in connection with the general election campaign
10 of candidates for Federal office. 2 U.S.C. 441a(d).

11 Under the Act and Commission regulations, a "contribution" includes "any gift, 12 subscription, loan, advance . . . or anything of value made by a person for the purpose of 13 influencing any election for Federal office." Id. at 431(8)(A)(i); 11 CFR 100.52. An 14 "expenditure" is similarly defined as "any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, 15 deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made by any person for the purpose of 16 influencing an election for Federal office." 2 U.S.C. 431(9)(A)(i); 11 CFR 100.111

17 Both the definitions of "contribution" and "expenditure" exempt certain payments
18 by a State or local committee of a political party in connection with volunteer activities.
19 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(ix) and (9)(B)(viii); see also 11 CFR 100.87 and 100.147. This 20 "volunteer materials exemption" is limited in several respects. For example, the 21 campaign materials must be distributed by volunteers and not by commercial or for-profit
22 operations. See 11 CFR 100.87(d) and 100.147(d). For purposes of the instant inquiry, 23 the most important limitation is that the campaign materials purchased by the State or

1 local party committee must be used in connection with volunteer activities “on behalf of 2 nominees of such party.” 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(ix) and (9)(B)(viii); 11 CFR 100.87 and 3 100.147.

4 Although neither the Act nor Commission regulations define the term “nominee,” 5 the Commission has previously determined that the volunteer materials exemption may, 6 in certain limited circumstances, apply even before a State party’s nominee is formally 7 elected through the State primary process. In Matter Under Review (“MUR”) 4471, the 8 Commission found that the volunteer materials exemption applied to the cost of materials 9 purchased by the Montana State Democratic Committee and mailed by volunteers on 10 behalf of Senator Max Baucus approximately five days before Montana’s primary 11 election. Statement of Reasons, MUR 4471 (Montana State Democratic Committee)
12 (Nov. 19, 1998) at 5. When the mailing occurred, Senator Baucus was the only 13 Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, and there could not be any other Democratic 14 candidate for that office under State law. Id. Accordingly, the Commission concluded 15 that, “as both a matter of fact and as a matter of state law,” Senator Baucus was his 16 party’s “presumptive nominee.” Id. Given that Senator Baucus was “the only candidate 17 under Montana law who could receive the Democratic nomination,” the volunteer 18 materials exemption applied. Id.

19 Accordingly, the relevant question for purposes of the instant inquiry is, at what 20 point will the State Party be able to identify its presumptive nominee “as both a matter of 21 fact and as a matter of State law”? See Statement of Reasons, MUR 4471 at 5. As noted 22 above, under Nevada law, a candidate of a major political party must be nominated in the 23 primary election, and persons wishing to run in the June 8, 2010 primary election must

1 file a declaration of candidacy or acceptance of candidacy between March 1 and March 2 12, 2010. The close of the filing period closes the ballot and establishes the field of 3 candidates seeking major party nominations. Thus, March 12, 2010 is the earliest date on 4 which the State Party will be able to identify its presumptive nominee. Any candidate of 5 the State Party who, as of that date, is on the State ballot and has no primary opponent
6 will be the State Party's presumptive nominee; any candidate who does have a primary 7 opponent will not be the State Party's presumptive nominee.

8       Therefore, payments made by the State Party after March 12, 2010 for materials 9 used in connection with volunteer activities on behalf of candidates not facing primary 10 challengers will qualify for the volunteer materials exemption and will not count towards 11 either the State Party's contribution or expenditure limits.<sup>5</sup> By contrast, payments made 12 by the State Party before March 12, 2010 for materials used in connection with volunteer 13 activities on behalf of candidates will not qualify for the volunteer materials exemption, 14 nor will payments made after March 12, 2010 for materials used in connection with 15 volunteer activities on behalf of candidates who have an opponent in the primary 16 election. If the State Party pays for campaign materials in either of these two latter 17 situations, then such payments will either count against the State Party's $5,000 per 18 candidate primary contribution limit under 2 U.S.C. 441a(a), or its coordinated party 19 expenditure limit, if the expenditures are in connection with the general election, under 20 2 U.S.C. 441a(d).<sup>6</sup>

<sup>5</sup> Requestor represents that its planned activities will comply with all other aspects of the volunteer activity exemption listed in 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(ix) and (9)(B)(viii) and 11 CFR 100.87 and 100.147

<sup>6</sup> In Advisory Opinion 1984-15 (RNC), Commission considered whether, under 2 U.S.C. 441a(d), a party committee may make coordinated party expenditures prior to the formal selection of that party's presidential nominee. In that Advisory Opinion, the Commission explicitly noted the differences between

1           The Commission’s conclusion is limited to the volunteer materials exemption in 2 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(ix) and (9)(B)(viii), and implementing regulations. This conclusion
3 does not apply to any other use or variation of the term “nominee” appearing in the Act
4 or Commission regulations, such as 2 U.S.C. 432(e)(3)(A) (referring to the presidential 5 candidate “nominated” by a political party).

6           This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the 7 Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your 8 request. See 2 U.S.C. 437f. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any 9 of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a 10 conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that 11 conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific 12 transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the 13 transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on 14 this advisory opinion. See 2 U.S.C. 437f(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or 15 conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the the language in 441a(d) and the section at issue here, 431. The Commission found it “[s]ignificant[]” that 2 U.S.C. 441a(d) “does not by its terms refer to candidates for Federal office as the party’s nominees; it refers to such candidates only as those who are ‘affiliated with’ the political party.” Advisory Opinion 1984-15 (RNC) n.4. The Commission noted, “[b]y contrast, in other contexts where Congress was concerned with the status of Federal office candidates as regards political party activity, it has explicitly referred to ‘nominees of’ the political party” and cited as an example the volunteer materials exemption provisions in 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(ix) and (9)(B)(viii). Id. (emphasis added).
