

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Francoise Stovall to: AO
Please respond to francoise

10/08/2014 02:38 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Francoise Stovall

Washington, DC 20001

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Alan Barthel to: AO
Please respond to alnbarthel

10/08/2014 02:45 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Alan Barthel

[REDACTED]
Fairfield, CT 06824

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

David Fish to: AO
Please respond to dfish

10/08/2014 02:45 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

David Fish

[REDACTED]
Brookfield, CT 06804

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Daniel Beltran to: AO
Please respond to dalexb4291

10/08/2014 02:51 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Daniel Beltran

[REDACTED]
Stamford, CT 06905

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Cynthia Crooker to: AO
Please respond to cynthia.crooker

10/08/2014 02:51 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Cynthia Crooker

[REDACTED]
New Haven, CT 06511

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Christine Brooks to: AO
Please respond to cbrooks

10/08/2014 02:51 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Christine Brooks

West Hartford, CT 06107

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

John Pritchard Woodstock to: AO
Please respond to dennison5930

10/08/2014 02:54 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

John Pritchard Woodstock

Woodstock, CT 06281

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Sarah Donovan to: AO
Please respond to sdonavan

10/08/2014 02:57 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Sarah Donovan

[REDACTED]
Easton, CT 06612

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

David Loughlin to: AO
Please respond to dloughlin

10/08/2014 03:13 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

David Loughlin

[REDACTED]
Brooklyn, CT 06234

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Michael Briney to: AO
Please respond to mbriney

10/08/2014 03:21 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Michael Briney

Naugatuck, CT 06770

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Kathy Chase to: AO
Please respond to katch

10/08/2014 03:30 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Kathy Chase

Shelton, CT 06484

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

ira kaplan to: AO
Please respond to irahike

10/08/2014 03:33 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

ira kaplan

[REDACTED]
stamford, CT 06905

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

leona klerer to: AO
Please respond to leona

10/08/2014 04:19 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

leona klerer

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
stamford, CT 06902

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Ruth B Moynihan to: AO
Please respond to ruthmoyn

10/08/2014 04:22 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Ruth B Moynihan
[REDACTED]
Storrs, CT 06268

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Drew Cucuzza to: AO
Please respond to dcucuzza

10/08/2014 04:30 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Drew Cucuzza

[REDACTED]
New Haven, CT 06515

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Betty & George OBrien to: AO
Please respond to bgobrien

10/08/2014 04:41 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Betty & George OBrien
[REDACTED]
Marlborough, CT 06447

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Debbie Kearns to: AO
Please respond to angeldeb82

10/08/2014 04:55 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Debbie Kearns

[REDACTED]
East Hartford, CT 06118

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Kevin Gallagher to: AO
Please respond to honkyis

10/08/2014 05:16 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Kevin Gallagher

[REDACTED]
New Fairfield, CT 06812

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

William Cibes to: AO
Please respond to cibesw

10/08/2014 05:20 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

William Cibes

Hartford, CT 06105

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Elke Hoppenbrouwers to: AO
Please respond to ehoppenbrouwers

10/08/2014 05:29 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Elke Hoppenbrouwers
[REDACTED]
East Haven, CT 06512

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Jane Herschlag to: AO
Please respond to jherschlag

10/08/2014 05:35 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Jane Herschlag

[REDACTED]
Danbury, CT 06811

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Mary Lou Murphy to: AO
Please respond to mimm93

10/08/2014 05:36 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Mary Lou Murphy
[REDACTED]
Norwalk, CT 06854

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Elizabeth Werner to: AO
Please respond to bethwerner

10/08/2014 06:02 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Elizabeth Werner
[REDACTED]
Hamden, CT 06514

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

patricia Hammel to: AO
Please respond to pahammel

10/08/2014 06:09 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

patricia Hammel
[REDACTED]
Norwalk, CT 06854

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Nasser Brahim to: AO
Please respond to Nasser.brahim

10/08/2014 06:37 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Nasser Brahim
[REDACTED]
New Haven, CT 03076

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Jenny Bass to: AO
Please respond to jb.dron

10/08/2014 07:09 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Jenny Bass

[REDACTED]
Windham, CT 06280

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Suzanne Bores to: AO
Please respond to heartcoach

10/08/2014 07:19 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Suzanne Bores

[REDACTED]
Trumbull, CT 06611

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Bill Nygren to: AO
Please respond to walf54bud

10/08/2014 07:46 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Bill Nygren

[REDACTED]
West Hartford, CT 06107

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

F. Jay Pocius to: AO
Please respond to jaypocius

10/08/2014 07:52 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

F. Jay Pocius

[REDACTED]
Westbrook, CT 06498

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Jerry Sawyer to: AO
Please respond to jfsawyer

10/08/2014 07:54 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Jerry Sawyer

[REDACTED]
Stratford, CT 06615

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

mike caso to: AO
Please respond to bmcaso.

10/08/2014 08:04 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

mike caso

[REDACTED]
Rocky Hill, CT 06067

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

George Anastasio to: AO
Please respond to g30rg3a

10/08/2014 09:01 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

George Anastasio

falls village, CT 06031

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

ALAN TRACY to: AO
Please respond to apt61

10/08/2014 09:04 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

ALAN TRACY

GROTON, CT 06340

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Ross Spiegel to: AO
Please respond to ross.spiegel

10/08/2014 09:35 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Ross Spiegel.

Milford, CT 06461

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Marianne Corona to: AO
Please respond to mjcorona

10/08/2014 09:45 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Marianne Corona

[REDACTED]
Middlefield, CT 06455

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Linda Gilbert to: AO
Please respond to lsg1991

10/08/2014 10:03 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Linda Gilbert

Manchester, CT 06040

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Dave Wiig to: AO
Please respond to wiig

10/08/2014 11:04 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Dave Wiig

[REDACTED]
Morris, CT 06763

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Tom Swan to: AO
Please respond to tswan

10/08/2014 11:05 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Tom Swan

[REDACTED]

Coventry, CT 06238

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Zak Eagle to: AO
Please respond to zakeagle

10/09/2014 02:48 AM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Zak Eagle

Stamford, CT 06902

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Ruth Magraw to: AO
Please respond to ruthmagraw

10/09/2014 10:09 AM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Ruth Magraw

[REDACTED]
branford, CT 06405

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Francine Ungaro to: AO
Please respond to fbungaro

10/09/2014 04:15 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Francine Ungaro

Southington, CT 06489

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Karen Baouche to: AO
Please respond to kbaouche

10/09/2014 04:50 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Karen Baouche

[REDACTED]
Ellington, CT 06029

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Richard Ruscitto to: AO
Please respond to ernlewest

10/09/2014 07:24 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Richard Ruscitto

[REDACTED]
Southbury, CT 06488

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Kenneth Deed to: AO
Please respond to ken

10/11/2014 02:30 AM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Kenneth Deed

[REDACTED]
Southbury, CT 06488

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Heather Files to: AO
Please respond to lmerewyn71

10/11/2014 10:53 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Heather Files

Stratford, CT 06615

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Valerie Luster to: AO
Please respond to valacct

10/11/2014 11:39 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Valerie Luster
[REDACTED]
vernon, CT 06066

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014
Ellen Hasselmann to: AO
Please respond to ellen

10/12/2014 01:03 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Ellen Hasselmann

[REDACTED]
Uncasville, CT 06382

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

June Maselli to: AO
Please respond to june.maselli

10/12/2014 06:01 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

June Maselli

New Haven, CT 06512

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

Rick Baumhauer to: AO
Please respond to rick.baumhauer

10/13/2014 10:37 AM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

Rick Baumhauer

West Haven, CT 06516

Negate the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission's Advisory
Opinion of February 2014

William Collins to: AO
Please respond to 9collins

10/13/2014 05:11 PM

The advisory opinion issued by the Connecticut State Elections Enforcement Commission seeks to weaken our hard-won campaign finance laws that have contributed to a steep decline in corruption in Connecticut. Please negate it with your ruling later this month. It's important that outside spending not influence our state elected officials and their duty to serve the people of Connecticut.

William Collins

[REDACTED]
Norwalk, CT 06851