Subject Harry Reid

What is wrong with you? This man is one of the many politicians who have given the American citizens $19,000,000,000,000.00 in debt and you think the rules should be changed so he can personally keep pac money?!?! There's not been any kind of plans or bills to even attempt to put a dent in our debt and this man had enjoyed much higher pay and much more vacation time than any of his average constituents throughout his political career. Furthermore, he's supposedly worth somewhere between 3-7 million already. He doesn't need that money! It should ALL go to our criminal amount of debt, not to him or the dnc. I would like a response from you confirming what I heard that you're trying to change the rules and are in favor of him personally getting this money and how you could possibly think that's ok.
