CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

ADVISORY OPINION 2010-09

Carol A. Laham, Esq.
D. Mark Renaud, Esq.
Wiley Rein LLP
1776 K Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Ms. Laham and Mr. Renaud:

We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of Club for Growth, Inc. (the “Club”) concerning the application of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”), and Commission regulations to its plans to establish, administer, and pay the solicitation costs of a new independent expenditure-only political committee (the “Committee”). The Committee plans to make only independent expenditures and to solicit unlimited contributions solely from individuals in the general public, including contributions given for specific independent expenditures. The Committee does not intend to coordinate its communications or expenditures with any candidate, candidate committee, or political party committee.

Based on the representations in the request and the analysis below, the Commission concludes that the Club may establish and administer the Committee, and the Committee may solicit and accept unlimited contributions from individuals in the general public, including contributions given for specific independent expenditures.

Background

The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on May 21, 2010.

The Club is an incorporated non-profit social welfare organization exempt from Federal taxes under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. It has a separate segregated fund (“SSF”), Club for Growth PAC (“Club PAC”). The Club plans to establish, administer, and pay the solicitation costs of the Committee, which would be organized as a tax-exempt organization under section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code.
and would be incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia. The Club intends to register the Committee with the Commission, and the Committee will file regular reports and independent expenditure reports. The President of the Club will serve as the Treasurer of the Committee.2

The Committee intends to make only independent expenditures, which will include all the disclaimers and notices required by the Act and Commission regulations. It plans to solicit contributions solely from individuals that may be unlimited in amount and solicited or given for specific independent expenditures. The Club states that such solicitations will also include all disclaimers and notices required by the Act and Commission regulations. The costs of the solicitations would be paid by the Club if permissible or otherwise would be paid by the Committee.

The Committee will not accept contributions from any political committee (including any separate segregated fund, authorized committee, or political party committee), candidate, labor organization, foreign national, government contractor, or corporation, except that the Club will pay for some or all of the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation costs.

The Club states that the Committee will not, itself, make any contributions or transfer any funds to any political committee if the amount of a contribution to the recipient committee is governed by the Act, nor will the Committee make any coordinated communications or coordinate any expenditures with any candidate, authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of such persons. Finally, the Committee will not accept contributions from Club PAC, nor will it make any contributions or transfer any funds to Club PAC.

Questions Presented

1. If the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept contributions from the general public?

2. If the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept funds earmarked for specific independent expenditures?

---

1 The Commission notes that this advisory opinion implicates issues that will be the subject of forthcoming rulemakings in light of the Citizens United, EMILY’s List, and SpeechNow decisions. The results of that rulemaking may require the Commission to update its registration and reporting forms to facilitate public disclosure. In the meantime, the Committee may include a letter with its Form 1 Statement of Organization clarifying that it intends to accept unlimited contributions for the purpose of making independent expenditures. See Attachment A. Electronic filers may include such a letter as a Form 99.

3. Are the answers to Questions 1 or 2 different if the Committee pays all of its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses?

Legal Analysis and Conclusions

1. If the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept contributions from the general public?

   Yes, based on the representations in the request and consistent with the analysis below, the Committee may solicit and accept contributions from the general public.

   The United States Supreme Court recently held that corporations may make unlimited independent expenditures using corporate treasury funds. Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. __, 130 S. Ct. 876 (2010). In addition, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit recently held that “the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(a)(3) are unconstitutional as applied to individuals’ contributions to SpeechNow,” an independent expenditure group. SpeechNow v. FEC, 599 F.3d 686, 689 (D.C. Cir. 2010); see also EMILY’s List v. FEC, 581 F. 3d 1, 10 (D.C. Cir. 2009) (“. . . individual citizens may spend money without limit (apart from the limit on their own contributions to candidates or parties) in support of the election of particular candidates”). The decision in SpeechNow was predicated on the Supreme Court’s holding in Citizens United “that independent expenditures, including those made by corporations, do not give rise to corruption or the appearance of corruption.” Citizens United, 130 S. Ct. at 909; see SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 693.

   The court made clear, though, that it was “only decid[ing] these questions as applied to contributions to SpeechNow, an independent expenditure-only group.” SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 696. Its holding did not affect limits on direct contributions to candidates or political party committees, including in-kind contributions in the form of coordinated communications.” Id. In addition, the court held that the “reporting requirements of 2 U.S.C. 432, 433, and 434(a) and the organizational requirements of 2 U.S.C. 431(4) and 431(8) can constitutionally be applied to SpeechNow.” Id. at 689.

   Relying on these two cases, the Club asks whether the Committee may solicit and accept contributions from the general public if the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative and solicitation expenses. In Citizens United, the Supreme

---

3 Even before Citizens United, incorporated membership organizations like the Club could spend unlimited amounts from their general treasury on the administrative and overhead costs associated with a separate segregated fund, even if that SSF made independent expenditures. See 2 U.S.C. § 441b(b)(2)(C) (exempting corporate payment of administrative and fundraising costs from definitions of contribution and expenditure); 11 CFR114.1(a)(2)(iii) (same).

4 On May 27, 2010, in accordance with the circuit court’s order, the United States District Court of the District of Columbia entered an order that the Act’s contribution limits (2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(a)(3)) and implementing regulations could not be constitutionally applied against SpeechNow or the individuals who contribute to it.
Court held that independent corporate political spending cannot be limited. Therefore, a corporation may establish and administer a political committee that makes only independent expenditures. Moreover, because the Committee, like SpeechNow, intends to make only independent expenditures, there is no basis to impose contribution limits on the Committee.\(^5\)

As noted above, the President of the Club, who currently serves as Club PAC’s Treasurer, will also serve as the Treasurer of the Committee. Because a corporation, through its restricted class events\(^6\) or its SSF, may lawfully coordinate with Federal candidates and party committees under certain circumstances, the overlap of duties could potentially compromise the independence of communications made by the Committee. However, the Club represents that the Committee will not engage in coordinated activity and will comply with the requirements of 11 CFR 109.21(d).\(^7\) Specifically, the Commission assumes that candidates or authorized committees will not request or suggest communications to agents of the Committee, nor will candidates or their agents assent to communications suggested by the Committee or any of its agents. See 11 CFR 109.21(d)(1). Candidates or authorized committees will not be materially involved in communications made by the Committee and will not substantially discuss communications or the candidate’s plans, projects, activities, or needs with the Committee or its agents. See 11 CFR 109.21(d)(2)-(3). In sum, the Commission assumes that the President will manage the Corporation and his responsibilities as Treasurer of the Committee and Club PAC without causing the Committee to engage in coordinated activities.\(^8\) Therefore, based on the representations in the request and the analysis above, the Committee may solicit and accept unlimited contributions from the general public even if the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses.

2. If the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept funds earmarked for specific independent expenditures?

\(^5\) See SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 693 (the court’s holding was predicated on the “independence of independent expenditures”).

\(^6\) See 11 CFR 114.2(c).

\(^7\) The request states that the Committee “will not, per the regulations of the FEC or applicable Federal law, coordinate any communications or other expenditure with any candidate, candidate committee, political party committee, or their agents.” Request at 2. Moreover, the Committee will not accept contributions from Club PAC, nor will it make any contributions or transfer any funds to Club PAC. \textit{Id.}

\(^8\) Although the firewall provided for in the Commission’s regulations is not mandatory, establishing such effective prophylactic measures would be one sufficient way to address potential concerns with respect to the conduct standards of the Commission’s coordination rule. See 11 CFR 109.21(h) (Safe harbor for establishment and use of a firewall); \textit{see also} MUR 5506 (EMILY’s List), First General Counsel’s Report at 5-8 (concluding that there was no reason to believe that the organization made excessive contributions in the form of coordinated communications, based in large part on the organization’s establishment of “firewall” measures).
Yes, consistent with the analysis in Question 1, the Committee may solicit and accept funds earmarked for specific independent expenditures.

The Commission’s current regulation at 11 CFR 110.1(h) limits a person that has already contributed to a specific candidate from also contributing to an unauthorized political committee if the contributor “give[s] with the knowledge that a substantial portion will be contributed to, or expended on behalf of, that candidate for the same election.” Section 110.1(h) “governs the circumstances under which contributions to a candidate and his or her authorized campaign committee(s) must be aggregated with contributions to other political committees for the purposes of the contribution limits of section 110.1.” Explanation and Justification, Contribution and Expenditure Limitations and Prohibitions, 52 FR 760, 765 (Jan. 9, 1987). In other words, the Commission’s earmarking regulation is designed to prevent the circumvention of contribution limits.

However, the Club has represented that the Committee will not, itself, make any contributions or transfer any funds to any political committee if the amount of a contribution to the recipient committee is governed by the Act, nor will the Committee make any coordinated communications or coordinate any expenditures with any candidate, authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of such persons. Thus, because there is no possibility of circumvention of any contribution limit, section 110.1(h) and its rationale do not apply to the Committee’s solicitations or any contributions it receives that are earmarked for specific independent expenditures.

3. Do the answers to Questions 1 or 2 change if the Committee pays its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses?

No, the answers to Questions 1 and 2 do not change if the Committee pays its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses.

The Club’s proposed payment of the Committee’s establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses are not exempt from the definition of “contribution” or “expenditure” because the Committee is not an SSF. Therefore, any establishment, administrative, or solicitation expenses paid by the Club must be reported by the Committee, which exclusively makes independent expenditures, as contributions from the Club. Alternatively, the proposed political committee may pay its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses.

The Commission expresses no opinion regarding the possible applicability of any Federal or State tax laws or other laws to the matters presented in your request, as those issues are outside its jurisdiction.

---

9 Under the Act and Commission regulations, a corporation may use its general treasury funds to pay the costs of establishing, administering, or soliciting contributions to its SSF, without a resultant contribution or expenditure. See 2 U.S.C. 441b(b)(2)(C); see also 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(vi).

10 See 2 U.S.C. 431(8), 434(b); 11 CFR 104.3(a).
This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your request. See 2 U.S.C. 437f. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on this advisory opinion. See 2 U.S.C. 437f(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the law including, but not limited to, statutes, regulations, advisory opinions, and case law.

On behalf of the Commission,

(signed)
Matthew S. Petersen
Chairman
ATTACHMENT A
[DATE]

Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC  20463

Re:  Form 1, Statement of Organization—Unlimited Contributions

To Whom It May Concern:

This committee intends to make independent expenditures, and consistent with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit decision in SpeechNow v. FEC, it therefore intends to raise funds in unlimited amounts. This committee will not use those funds to make contributions, whether direct, in-kind, or via coordinated communications, to federal candidates or committees.

Respectfully submitted,

Treasurer